About Elizabeth

Having taught Bible studies and led retreats for over 30 years, Elizabeth Reynolds Turnage, D. Min., loves leading retreats, conferences, and seminars for women and older adults.

Her speaking is rooted in a deep love for Scripture, shaped by years of study and real-life experience. Elizabeth seeks to help participants connect the truths of the gospel to the realities they are living every day—whether navigating aging, caregiving, suffering, or questions of calling and legacy.

Her goal is to create space for thoughtful teaching and personal reflection, encouraging lasting transformation and helping women see their lives as part of God's larger story.

Speaking Themes

- Living in light of God's story of grace
- Aging, legacy, and the hope of glory
- Caregiving and gospel hope
- Praying God's story
- Identity and calling in Christ

Her sessions were so easy to understand, and they flew by—I didn't want them to end. I especially appreciated how she helped me see my place in God's story....

Featured Events

Christ Our Life: Living Now in Light of Glory

A women's retreat based on Colossians 3

Through Colossians 3, we'll explore the transforming reality of our union with Christ, the glorious future that awaits us, and how the hope of heaven changes the way we live, love, and relate to one another today. An optional Story Feast invites participants to share and reflect on God's work in their lives.

Preparing for Glory: Gospel Hope for Aging Gracefully, Leaving a Lasting Legacy, and Finishing Well

A women's or older adults' retreat or conference

Helps participants face aging, illness, and the final chapter of life with gospel-shaped hope. We explore how to walk wisely and leave a legacy of faith, hope, and love for those who come after us.

Living Story Legacy Workshop

A women's or older adults' retreat or conference

This interactive workshop helps participants reflect on their lives and pass on their faith, values, and wisdom to the next generation.
